

On this day in 1915, the modern-day United States Coast Guard was founded. It was originally created by Congress back in 1790 as the Revenue-Marine. The Coast Guard helps keep our oceans and shores safe. Can you think of some examples of how the Coast Guard might rescue people or protect the environment?